presses, together with three double thirty-two job folders equipped for India papers.

Without exaggeration, our equipment is now the largest, most modern and complete in this country. Our reputation in handling India paper products is well known.

Excellent also is the reputation we have attained for the production of edition work of all grades, classes and sizes, in the various bindings.

Our Desire:
To serve you intelligently.

Our Aim:
A satisfactory product, made superior to others.

The Trend of Progress is ever onward and upward. During the past year we have installed an entire new battery of six gold stamping and embossing, and four inking presses, together with three double thirty-two job folders equipped for India papers.

Without exaggeration, our equipment is now the largest, most modern and complete in this country. Our reputation in handling India paper products is well known.

Excellent also is the reputation we have attained for the production of edition work of all grades, classes and sizes, in the various bindings.

Books
By
Roger W. Babson

BUSINESS BAROMETERS

A book indicating to the student the trend of business, containing a commercial and financial history of the United States from 1860 to date; the prices of leading commodities and stocks over a period of fifty years; and various tables on failures, clearings, crops, railroad earnings, exports, imports, commodity prices, and many other subjects which determine price movements. In addition Mr. Babson shows how great merchants, bankers and investors use these figures for anticipating the trend of prices.

Leather bound, flexible—Price $2.00

COMMERCIAL PAPER

A practical study of commercial paper, and suitable as a text-book for colleges. Prepared in collaboration with Ralph May. Great attention has been given to make the book valuable both to the buyer and seller of commercial paper, showing the business man how to make his notes safe and attractive to banks, and showing the banker and investor how to select good paper.

Leather bound, flexible—Price $2.00

BONDS AND STOCKS

A very pleasing but instructive study of these two kinds of securities, showing in a comprehensive and concise manner their strong and weak points together with reasons why some classes of securities are attractive, and why others are unattractive and therefore should be avoided. A revelation of facts heretofore unpublished in book form.

Leather bound, flexible—Price $2.00

THE FUTURE METHOD OF INVESTING MONEY

This is said to be the frankest and briefest explanation of the "inside" of the investment business ever published. An important chapter is devoted to showing when to buy. Mr. Bason believes that to know this is more important than to know what to buy.

Library binding, bold type—Price $1.00

THE FUTURE OF THE WORKING CLASSES

A book which has shocked both social workers and capitalists alike, and of intense interest to all educators. The book is based upon a lecture delivered by Mr. Babson at the London School of Economics.

Library binding, bold type—Price $1.00

THE FUTURE OF THE NATIONS

The other title for this book is "Prosperity," and it shows what nations must do in order to become truly prosperous. Here Mr. Babson explains how wars will eventutlly be eliminated and nations will for self-protection compete in developing men instead of guns.

Library binding, bold type—Price $1.00

THE FUTURE OF THE CHURCHES

We all at times wonder what is to be the future of the churches and what we shall teach our children about them. In this little book the answer is given by one in sympathy with the churches, but in a businesslike manner which appeals to those who never attend. It shows the "ups and downs" of the past and their causes—with applications to present times.

Library binding, bold type—Price $1.00

THE FUTURE OF THE RAILROADS

This book discusses one of the livest commercial questions of today. In it Mr. Babson, a recognized expert on railroads, clearly indicates what must be their future if they are to serve the people. It will be read with absorbing interest by the general public as well as by shippers and railroad men.

Library binding, bold type—Price $1.00

THE FUTURE OF US BOYS

A book edited by Mr. Babson, which every father and employer should read.

Library binding, bold type—Price $1.00

NOTICE
A New Book

THE FUTURE OF WORLD PEACE

The recent European war is called "the greatest crime of the ages," but much of the talk of the professional pacifists and the professional militarists is alike foolish. Peace must be based on an economic foundation. In this book, which is largely devoted to pictorial diagrams illustrative of the real facts in the case, Mr. Babson shows conclusively the only way in which peace can come about.

W. T. CALL

669 E. 32d Street, Brooklyn, N. Y.

A PLEA FOR SHAKESPEARE AND WHITMAN

Some findings for persons who like to do their own thinking. Boards, 62 pages, 50 cents.

"If you don't know Shakespeare or Whitman, and would like to—really—read the tiny guide which Mr. Call has written, and you will have a round-trip ticket on all lines leading to the centre of research on the uniquely united topic."—Ohio State Journal.

BOY'S BOOK ON LOGIC

A talk, not a treatise. Things in Logic that interest us, and help us to think straight. Cloth, 97 pages, 50 cents.

"The grown man or woman who overlooks it on account of the name is going to lose something valuable."—Cincinnati Star.

TEN GREAT LITTLE POEMS

Not by the old masters. Picked up adrift. Cloth, 76 pages, 50 cents.

"There is more in this tiny volume than appears on the surface or in the title page."—Minneapolis Journal.

YOU AND I AND THE STARS

A new view of the old way of telling why we are what we are. Cloth, 101 pages, 50 cents.

"A New York writer of no mean ability, Mr. William Timothy Call, is to be credited with hitting upon the first natural explanation of astral influence."—N. Y. Mail.

LIFE AS IT IS

Tragedy, laughter, and philosophy found in clippings from newspapers. Cloth, 89 pages, 50 cents.

"Out of the ordinary—and because it is, is what makes it the one book of the season worth reading." —Grand Rapids Herald.

THE LITTLE GRAMMAR

Original in every way—new in design, new in method, new in doctrine. Large type. Cloth, 35 pages, 50 cents.

"It epitomizes in thirty-five pages of concentrated wisdom all a boy would be expected to digest from a volume of 350 pages in the regular school course." —Albany Argus.

NEW METHOD IN MULTIPLICATION AND DIVISION

An excursion in the realm of Numbers. Cloth, 67 pages, 50 cents.

"All in all it is a curious but useful tract on numbers."—Trenton Advertiser.

SHORTHAND FOR GENERAL USE

Intended for those who would like to be able to write shorthand without hesitation, connecting one letter with another as freely as in longhand, and not be obliged to master a highly scientific treatise in order to obtain brevity and speed enough for common purposes. Paper, 36 pages, 25 cents.

"A little book. One of its great recommendations is its simplicity."—Rochester Post-Express.

SCIENTIFIC SOLITAIRE

A new game of Solitaire, or Patience, based on exact calculation, and eliminating memorizing. Paper, 27 pages, 20 cents.

"Any one understanding cards at all cannot fail to comprehend the author's clear and lucid explanation."—San Francisco Call.

KBOO: The Counting Game .. ..

A scientific, historical pastime, with a past, a present, and a future. Paper, 25 pages, 25 cents.

"Among civilized people, chess and draughts can alone be classed as games of pure skill, entirely free from chance. A third game, Kboo, equally free from chance, and affording unlimited opportunity for the exercise of mental skill, is played over the whole of Africa and Southern Asia, and by the negroes of the West Indies, but seems never to have been taken up by European races."—National Geographic Magazine.

VOCABULARY OF CHECKERS

A dictionary of words, terms, and phrases used in the game called Checkers, or English Draughts. Cloth, 201 pages, $1.00.

"It is difficult to believe that so simple a game as checkers should have developed so extensive a vocabulary as Mr. William Timothy Call has gathered in 'Vocabulary of Checkers.' It fills 200 good-sized pages. The author's definitions are encyclopædic, and include a mass of interesting information about the game."—N. Y. Sun.

THE LITERATURE OF CHECKERS

A description of all the books, pamphlets, and magazines devoted to the game from 1756 to the present day; giving current value of all rare or scarce works; 227 entries. Cloth, 72 pages, $1.00.

"A magnificent and painstaking contribution to draughts literature."—Suffolk Chronicle, England.

R. D. YATES, CHECKER PLAYER

An intimate biography of the greatest of checker players; covering anecdotes, opinions, methods, triumphs, all his games in full; incidentally a history of checkers in America. Cloth, 152 pages, $1.00

"We have rarely read so engrossing a work."— The Umpire, Manchester, England.

ELLSWORTH'S CHECKER BOOK

A book for beginners; arranged according to suggestions of the late Charles Ellsworth, the professional blind checker player. Paper, 65 pages, 25 cents.

"Contains in addition to much that is entertaining, some of the most valuable instruction on the rudiments of the game that is to be found in any treatise."—Newark Advertiser.

THE SAFE CHECKER PLAYER

Vol. I.—The Black Side. Devoted exclusively to play; showing a safe course to the player who starts the game, however his opponent may attack him at any point. Leather, vest-pocket size, 50 cents.

Vol. II.—The White Side. A companion volume; showing a safe course to the second player, however his opponent may start the game or carry out the attack. Leather, vest-pocket size, 50 cents.

"These little books contain the essence of many volumes of published play, and are invaluable as a short but thorough equipment for the practical player."—Draughts World, Glasgow, Scotland.

MIDGET PROBLEMS IN CHECKERS

All the ideas in positions of 2 vs. 2 pieces. Boards, 72 pages, 50 cents.

"There is probably no game of which a superficial knowledge is more easily acquired than checkers, yet it is capable of a profundity of which the average player is entirely ignorant."—Scientific American.

"Our Marriage Vow"

The oldest and most popular Episcopal Marriage Certificate in book form on the market.

The book contains the marriage service, marriage certificate, and pages for the family record of the contracting parties.

THE NARROW WAY. Being a Complete Manual of Devotion, with a Guide to Confirmation and Holy Communion. New Edition. Adapted to American use. 48mo, cloth, 25 cents net.

CONFIRMATION MEMORIAL. Square 24mo, limp cloth, 15 cents net. "It is very appropriate, very beautiful, and very useful. In a small space and in regular order, it furnishes a Confirmation Certificate, a Pastor's Letter, or statement of the vows made, Anniversary Days, Life's Calendar, and Words of Advice. A more suitable present a pastor can hardly give to the members of his Confirmation class."

A PERSONAL QUESTION. Why Should You Not Be Confirmed When the Bishop Visits this Parish? By Rev. G. W. Shinn, D.D. 5 cents net.

WHY AM I AN EPISCOPALIAN? By Rev. G. W. Shinn, D.D. 10 cents net.

THE "WHAT" AND "WHY" OF CONFIRMATION, Together with Confirmation Lesson Papers. By the Rev. Charles L. Pardee, D.D., Rector of St. Michael's Church, Naugatuck, Conn. 48 pages, 4½ x 6½, paper cover; 10 cents per copy in any quantity.

WHAT EVERY WARDEN AND VESTRYMAN SHOULD KNOW. By the Rev. Henry Anstice, D.D., Secretary of House of Deputies, General Convention. 32mo, cloth. 30 cents net. It is something more than a mere compilation from the canons of the Church and from the Prayer Book. Dr. Anstice makes very clear many points of civil law and of canonical and rubrical enactment that every rector and every vestryman ought to know.

WHAT EVERY ONE SHOULD KNOW BEFORE COMING TO CONFIRMATION. By Rev. G. W. Shinn, D.D. 48 pages, paper cover; 10 cents net.

SUNDAY-SCHOOL TEACHER'S CLASS-BOOK. (Hammond's.) With leaves half the width of book. Black stiff covers. 12 cents net. The peculiar merit of this Class-Book is that the names and addresses of scholars need to be written but once in the year, saving trouble and inaccuracy.

NOT CHANGED, BUT GLORIFIED. A poem from an anonymous source, but by far the most popular of its class. Printed in purple, with initial letters in red. 15 cents net.

HOLY BAPTISM. Containing the Baptismal Office from the Prayer Book, printed in large type, rubricated, with certificates of Baptism and Confirmation, the latter being a reminder to parents that the book is not complete until the child has been confirmed. Bound in white leatherette, each copy in an envelope. Net, 25 cents.

NEW NOVELS

THE GIRL FROM NO. 13. By Reginald Heber Patterson. Illustrated. Jacket in colors. $1.25 net; postage 12c.

A novel of optimism, in which there is a powerful uplift. A girl placed in a false position through no fault of her own at last finds courage and strength in the trust of a clean, high-minded man.

The scenes of the story alternate between an old-fashioned southern city and the mountains of Virginia, with many interesting figures, from Mrs. McCoy, the woman who at last saw the light, to little Jack, the boy of the wilderness.

THE THIRD PARTY. By Frederic Arthur Stanley. Illustrated. Jacket in colors. $1.25 net; postage 12c.

All the comedy of the entertaining original has been captured and welded into what is one of the most amusing books of the year.

A highly respectable man yields to the impulse to make money by clandestinely promoting a fortune-teller's parlor. How his secret comes near exposure, and the frantic efforts he makes to guard it, make a book full of frolic and laughs.

THE HIDDEN THINGS. By J. Wesley Putnam. In defence of Harold Bell Wright.

In "The Eyes of the World" Harold Bell Wright attacked unscrupulous writers of unwholesome fiction. Will his great public of millions of earnest readers be turned away by the criticism which has arisen against the man and his writings?

This novel, "The Hidden Things," tells many secrets concerning the literary game as it has come to be played.

THE TUNNEL. By Bernard Kellerman. $1.25 net; postage 12c.

"A wonderful story of a strictly modern engineering exploit—the building of a tunnel from America to Europe."—Philadelphia North American.

"Audacious and ingenious. The story is worked out with realistic imagination."—N. Y. Times

THE TRAIL OF THE WAVING PALM. By Page Philips. Illustrated. Jacket in colors. $1.25 net; postage 12c.

"An exciting view of life in Mexico. Cannot fail to hold its readers."—N. Y. Times.

"A story of the open that is highly captivating throughout."—Cincinnati Times-Star.

HILDA AGAINST THE WORLD. By Victoria Cross. Jacket in colors. Price $1.25 net; postage 12c.

The author has conceived and portrayed what is perhaps the most difficult situation on earth. When is a marriage not a marriage? The case which she presents may easily arise, and she has blended the fact with her fictitious plot.

THE THIRD SEX. By Ernst Von Wolzogen, author of "Florian Mayr." Translated from the German by Grace Isabel Colbron. Picture Jacket. Price $1.25 net; postage 12c.

This novel created a decided sensation in Europe on its first appearance, having gone into edition after edition until nearly 200,000 have been sold. Some of the thoughts uttered in it were too daring even for those women to think out who had the freeing of their sex from age-long tradition most in mind.

JUVENILES

BABES IN TOYLAND. By Glen MacDonough and Anna Alice Chapin.

Based on the famous play of the same name. Many decorations and illustrations in color by Ethel Franklin Betts. Large 8vo. Cloth. Price 75 cents.

In this charming fairy story, the dolls in an old toymaker's shop come to life and have such wonderful adventures that children never tire of hearing of them.

HUMPTY DUMPTY. By Anna Alice Chapin. Many decorations and illustrations in colors by Ethel Franklin Betts. Large 8vo. Cloth. Price 75 cents.

The tale of Humpty Dumpty is concerned with a boy and a girl who do not believe in fairy stories. Into their playground rolls the veritable Humpty Dumpty of Mother Goose, and introduces them to a series of marvellous adventures.

BEDTIME STORIES. By Claude Wetmore. Many illustrations in color. Price 75 cents.

A juvenile quarto size, with original pictures by Mildred L. Bailey and Theresa Jessel Jones.

A collection of wonder-stories which the author has told with much success to his own children and their little friends.

QUEEN TINY'S LITTLE PEOPLE. By Claude Wetmore. Uniform with Bedtime Stories. Price 75 cents.

A delightful fairy-story of an original sort. The book is filled with charming three-color illustrations which depict scenes from the fairy realm as discovered by some flesh-and-blood little boys and girls from Big Folk's Land.

SLEEPY-TIME TALES. Pictures by Harry L. Smith. Large 16mo. Price, 50 cents each.

Animal stories for children from 5 to 10 years of age.

1. The Tale of Cuffy Bear

Being very inquisitive and somewhat clumsy, little Cuffy was a genuine, if an unintentional, little clown, and his antics make a book that all children will vote funny.

2. The Tale of Frisky Squirrel

Frisky Squirrel was a lively little fellow whose daring frequently got him into such trouble as required all his nimbleness to extricate himself.

3. The Tale of Tommy Fox

Tommy's ambition frequently led him into escapades from which he did not always emerge with flying colors. But Tommy was always ready to embark upon some new mischief.

4. The Tale of Fatty 'Coon.

Fatty 'Coon loved to eat better than anything else in the world. That was what made him so fat. And that, also, was what led him into many adventures which he would otherwise have avoided.

THE MERRYMOUNT PRESS PUBLICATIONS

THE HUMANISTS' LIBRARY. UNDER THE EDITORSHIP OF LEWIS EINSTEIN. A SERIES OF BOOKS CHARACTERISTIC OF SOME ASPECT OF THE CULTURE OF THE RENAISSANCE. Printed under Mr. Updike's supervision from the "Montallegro" type (designed for The Merrymount Press by Mr. Herbert P. Horne), on a hand-made paper specially manufactured for the series. The edition printed of each volume is strictly limited. Price of First Series, $6.00 net per volume. Price of Second Series, $3.00 net per volume; the set of 4 vols., $10.00

The purpose of The Humanists' Library is to print in a form as near akin as possible to the traditions of the printer's art in its earliest days, a brief series of books, each one of which shall be characteristic of some aspect of the culture which flourished in Western Europe during the period of the Renaissance. Each book will be assigned to a scholar who will supply an introduction and will be responsible for the accuracy of the text.

TRANSLATIONS FROM THE SANSKRIT BY SWAMI PARAMANANDA.

SRIMAD-BHAGAVAD-GITA. Cloth, Gilt top, 75 cents. Flexible Leather, $1.00. Postage 4 cents.

"The Swami brought to his task a thorough knowledge of the two languages, a profound understanding of the thought, and a realization of the thought through the life. Its language is simple, fervent and spontaneous, and if it lacks the ornate imagery of William Q. Judge's translation for the Theosophists, it is probably a more accurate rendering of the original."—Boston Evening Transcript.

"Of particular use to the beginner in Sanskrit, as it follows the Sanskrit text very closely, though never at the expense of the English."—Luzac's Book Review.

Books by Charlotte Perkins Gilman

PUBLISHED BY THE

CHARLTON COMPANY

67 WALL STREET NEW YORK CITY

The Man-Made World. $1.00 net, cloth.
Here a woman of broad Humanitarianism and world-wide reputation shows the effect on Human life of too much masculine dominance.

Moving the Mountain. $1.00 net, cloth.
A new world story, with broadly active womanhood and strangely contented men.

The Crux. $1.00 net, cloth.
This is a smooth, pleasant, natural sort of story, out of which suddenly blazes the new morality, saying "Beware of a Biological Sin: for that there is no forgiveness." It is a story expressly written for girls, yet there will be some who would by no means allow girls to have such knowledge, though it would save many.

Human Work. $1.00 net.
The Sociological theory of this book, if established, will rearrange the "dismal science" of political economy from the ground up. It gives a new base to Socialism.

Suffrage Songs. 10 cents net; $1.00 a dozen; paper.
A booklet of appropriate selected verse from Mrs. Gilman's works. Portrait of Mrs. Gilman on cover. Appeals to the head, the heart, and to believers—or unbelievers—in equal rights for women.

What Diantha Did. $1.00 net, cloth.
"What she did was to solve the domestic service problem for both mistress and maid in a southern California town; and she illustrated in her own life Mrs. Gilman's theory that a wife, mother and housekeeper can easily be also a business man."—The Survey.

The Home. $1.00 net, cloth.
The light of modern criticism here falls upon a very ancient idol, changing our blind worship to wholesome doubt of the home as an economic success.

THE FORERUNNER. 10 cents a copy. $1.00 a year.
The Forerunner carries Mrs. Gilman's best and newest work; her social philosophy, her verse, satire, fiction, ethical teaching, humor, and comment. It stands for Humanness in Women, and in Men; for better methods in Child-culture; for the Home that is no Workshop; for the New Ethics, the New Economics, the New World we are to make—are making.

Bound Volumes I, II, II, IV, V. The Forerunner.
Cloth, $1.25 net (except Vol. I, which is $1.60 net). These are not merely the back numbers of a current magazine, but vital literature, good for all time.

Books and Journals

written and edited by

WILLIAM J. ROBINSON, M.D.

THE TREATMENT OF SEXUAL IMPOTENCE and Other Sexual Disorders In Men and Women. The most complete, most explicit and most practical treatise in existence on the causes, symptons and treatment of sexual impotence and every other variety of sexual disorders in the male and female. Cloth, 420 pp. $3.00.

THE TREATMENT OF GONORRHEA AND ITS COMPLICATIONS IN MEN AND WOMEN. The best and most practical work on the subject for the general practitioner. Pp. 315, cloth, $2.50.

SEXUAL PROBLEMS OF TODAY. Deals with every phase of the sex question, both in its individual and its social aspects. The scientific knowledge of a physician, eminent as a specialist in everything pertaining to the physiological and medical side of these topics, is combined with the vigorous social views of a thinker who has radical ideas and is not afraid to give them out-spoken expression. Cloth, 340 pp. $2.00.

NEVER TOLD TALES. Presents in the form of fiction, in language which is simplicity itself, the disastrous results of sexual ignorance. The book is epoch-making; it has reached the ninth edition. It is a book that should be read by everyone, physician and layman, especially those contemplating marriage. Cloth, 191 pp. $1.00.

THE LIMITATION OF OFFSPRING BY THE PREVENTION OF CONCEPTION: Fewer and Better Babies. All the arguments for the voluntary limitation of offspring concentrated into one book of 250 pages, and all objections answered. Cloth, $1.00.

STORIES OF LOVE AND LIFE. A companion volume to "Never Told Tales." Cloth, 179 pp. $1.00.

PRACTICAL EUGENICS: FOUR MEANS OF IMPROVING THE HUMAN RACE. Advocates the repeal of the laws prohibiting the dissemination of information concerning the prevention of conception; the requirement of a certificate of freedom from transmissible disease from applicants for marriage licenses; the sterilization of imbeciles and congenital habitual criminals; the use of venereal prophylactics. Cloth, 93 pp. 50 cents.

SEX MORALITY, Past, Present and Future. A symposium edited by Dr. Robinson. Cloth, pp. 192. $1.00.

COLLECTANEA JACOBI. Complete works of Dr. A. Jacobi, President of the American Medical Association. Edited by Dr. Robinson. 8 vols., illustrated, extra cloth, gilt top. $15.00.

DR. ROBINSON'S JOURNALS

THE CRITIC AND GUIDE. Unique among medical journals. Many questions untouched by other publications, involved in the relation of medicine and hygiene to economic and sexual problems, are treated frankly and scientifically. Monthly, $1.00 a year; single copies, 20 cents.

THE AMERICAN JOURNAL OF URULOGY AND SEXOLOGY. Monthly, $3.00 per annum; single copies, 30 cents.

Diseases of the Dog

AND

Their Treatment

By Dr. Georg Muller, Professor, Director of the Clinic for Small Animals at the Veterinary High School at Dresden, and Alexander Glass, A.M., V.S. (McGill), for thirty-one years (1885-1915), Lecturer on Canine Pathology in the University of Pennsylvania.

This work is the only serious one on the subject. The authors, equipped by long years of clinical practice and experience in Europe and America, have produced what has become the recognized work on the subject. The leading colleges in every English-speaking country have instantly recognized its value as a text-book and adopted it, and it has received the approval of the leading veterinarians and veterinarian journals. Every detail in the diseases of the dog is carefully considered, and the whole so admirably arranged that the student and layman can readily find and study any subject in a clear, condensed form. This third new edition has been entirely rewritten and much new material added, but in particular the chapters on Rabies and Tuberculosis contain the results of the investigations in these subjects during the past ten years.

New illustrations and plates, in colors (192 in all), increase the value of the work. Descriptive circulars sent on receipt of request. Large octavo, 524 pages, art canvas, $6.00.

Strongly recommended by the Berlitz School of Languages

The Mercantile Speller

Containing the correct way of spelling words and their tenses, plurals, etc.

This, the only complete Thesaurus of the Anglo-Saxon tongue, forms a perfect companion for the busy correspondent. Many know perfectly what they wish to say, and how to say it, who are yet dubious on the correct orthography of the words they use, particularly in reference to the plurals, tenses, etc.; to these persons the present work is invaluable. No clerk is equipped for a position without one of them, and it is indispensable to all in the professions.

It contains more words in actual use than any dictionary, arranged in the most convenient form. There is an appendix containing unusual words with different meanings and spellings, so that the proper one can instantly be selected. The list is very full, in the expressions of the arts and sciences, comprising many thousand technical, industrial and scientific terms which have lately enriched our vocabulary.

Descriptive circulars sent on receipt of request. Octavo, 470 pp., bound in black cloth, red edges, $2.50.

Cruises MAINLY IN THE BAY OF THE CHESAPEAKE

By Robert Barrie and George Barrie, Jr.

"Readers will remember those interesting logs, not only for their value as records of cruises, but also for the many items of gossip and history concerning the wonderful coastline passed. They give delightful thumbnail sketches of those American people one seldom hears about, but which constitute a very strong factor in the country and its social life."—The Yachting Monthly, London.

"Written by two men who clearly know how to get the most of marine life along shore. They set forth their adventures in an easy, unpretentious style that brings readers close to the scenes described."—Boston Evening Transcript.

Octavo, 276 pp., with 96 Illustrations and Chart, $2.

J. C. F. Grumbine's Books

Clairvoyance (Fourth Edition)

Since the publication of Emanuel Swedenborg's books, no more helpful, valuable work has appeared than the one entitled Clairvoyance: Its Nature and Law of Unfoldment, by J. C. F. Grumbine. It is a system of inspired teachings concerning Divinity, especially Clairvoyance, and how to unfold the clairvoyant vision, to pierce the veil of sense, see and converse with spirits, enter at will into the spiritual world, and become a seer and an adapt in this branch of mystical science. Published in blue and green cloth. Price $1.50.

Easy Lessons in Occult Sciences

is a neat book containing much very helpful knowledge on how to proceed to unfold the independent psychical powers without going into a trance or becoming obsessed. It is a textbook for beginners who contemplate making the most of themselves, both in a human and divine sense. Price 50c.

Psychometry

is a simple but profound exposition of this most fascinating subject, put before the reader in language which is both clear and dignified, and which opens the eyes to the inner spheres of the soul and the law for the expression of this soul-power called sensitiveness or soul-measurement. Price 50c.

Auras and Colors

is a very readable book, and inasmuch as the book is now in its eighth thousand, proves its value as an original contribution on this very occult subject. How to see the aura, how to know the significance of the colors one vibrates, how to place them and the spirit who manifests them, how to catalogue all colors correctly, what colors to wear, is here briefly and concisely explained. This is a busy man's book. Price 50c.

The Great Secret, and Other Occult Tales is a series of short stories on Spiritualism, ghost stories founded on facts, and stranger than fiction. The Great Secret tells prospective man or woman when to marry, how to produce children who will be angels rather than demons, by a law which science will sooner or later recognize. Price 50c.

Proofs of Spirit Identity

A series of letters from Spirit Elizabeth Barrett Browning to J. C. F. Grumbine while a clergyman in the Unitarian Church. Price 50c.

The Spirit World

Where and What It Is. A full description of this supernormal world to which our beloved and departed spirit friends go after death, and how they live and seek to communicate with us. Price, paper, 50c.

Universal Religion

and Its Relation to Spiritism and Spiritualism. Price 50c.

Clairaudience

Teaches how to unfold and express the supernormal power of clairaudient (Spiritual) hearing. Cloth, $1; paper, 50c.

ANNOUNCING THE FIFTEENTH EDITION

OF

"Feeds and Feeding"

REVISED, ENLARGED AND REWRITTEN

Comes from Press Sept. 1915

By W. A. HENRY, D. Sc., D. Agr.

Formerly Dean, College of Agriculture, and Director, Agricultural Experimental Station, University of Wisconsin

AND

F. B. MORRISON, B. S.

Assistant Director, Agricultural Experiment Station, and Assistant Professor of Animal Husbandry, University of Wisconsin

This volume comprises about 700 pages of accurate, helpful information on the feeding of farm animals. In it the most important results of feeding trials carried on by American Experiment Stations and European scientists are presented, supplemented by the experiences of successful stockmen. Economy in stockfeeding is given especial attention.

"Feeds and Feeding" is acknowledged the most authoritative book on feeding stuffs and livestock feeding in the English language. It has been quoted as authority in the bulletins of practically all the Experiment Stations in the United States, which is true of no other book on agriculture.

On account of its reputation, the majority of the Experiment Stations in the United States have furnished for this new edition the results of feeding trials yet unpublished. The book therefore contains a mass of data available in no other book. The labor involved in the preparation of the book is shown by the fact that the full time of a person was required for three years merely in revising the Appendix Tables, showing the composition and nutrients in American feeding stuffs.

Though quoted as authority by the college professor, "FEEDS AND FEEDING" is so simply written that any farm boy can understand it. It is used as a text or reference book in practically all the agricultural and veterinary colleges in America and in many secondary schools. Thousands of copies have been purchased by practical farmers and stockmen.

War—What For?

By GEORGE R. KIRKPATRICK

The Chicago Evening Post:

"War—What For?" is as well calculated to impress its readers as Paine's Rights of Man. . ."

The Boston Watchman:

"Argued with bitter intensity . . . The arraignment is terrific, and supported with a mass of testimony and figures that is appalling."

The Cleveland, Ohio, News:

"The reader will find in this book the horrors of war painted in colors as blood red and appalling as ever Verestchagin put upon canvas. There is a fascination about the volume. . . ."

The Brooklyn Eagle:

"Fiery, red hot, merciless in its criticism."

The Religious Telescope:

"Intensifies every aspect of woe attaching to every phase of militarism, which it knocks down and out."

Unity, Chicago:

"A scathing denunciation of war. . . . The style is trenchant, almost startling."

The book contains: 384 pages; 12 chapters; 26 intensely interesting full-page pictures (nine powerful halftones); numerous literary photographs of war; trenchant discussion of every phase of war, militarism, and social struggle; bibliography, numerous suggestions for promoting the propaganda against war and militarism.

THE SHANNON BOOKS

Sex Hygiene Personal and Social Purity, Eugenics

PERFECT WOMANHOOD. A book for every young woman. A companion volume to Perfect Manhood. It contains vital information, counsel, inspiration, and revelation for women. It is sane, safe, simple, scientific and practical. Women have their problems as well as men. The author has, for many years, lectured to mass audiences of women, and annually to many thousands of school and college girls. Many come to him with their problems, personally or by confidential correspondence.

Every woman over fifteen years of age should have a copy of this book.

Bound in fine cloth, postpaid, 75c. Just out.

PERFECT MANHOOD. A book for every man, single or married. Over 100,000 copies ordered in advance. Recently revised, greatly enlarged and appropriately illustrated. Every sentence of this greatest of all books for men is a chaste, practical, scientific explanation of man's sexual nature.

Bound in fine cloth, postpaid, 75c.

PERFECT BOYHOOD. For every boy from ten to fifteen years of age. Contains what boys ought to know and no more. Just to the extent that prevention is better than restoration or reformation, it is wiser to place Perfect Boyhood in the hand of a twelve-year-old boy than to wait until he is a young man, and then give him Perfect Manhood. Safeguard your boy with a knowledge of himself, and, when he is a man, he will possess self-control.

Bound in paper, 20c.; cloth, postpaid, 40c.

PERFECT GIRLHOOD. For every girl from ten to fifteen years of age. Contains what girls ought to know and no more. A companion volume to Perfect Boyhood.

Many mothers do not realize the social dangers to which small girls are exposed. It is wiser to place Perfect Girlhood in the hand of a twelve-year-old girl than to wait and give her Perfect Womanhood when she is sixteen.

Bound in paper, 20c.; cloth, postpaid, 40c.

HOW TO TELL THE STORY OF LIFE. Recently revised, greatly enlarged and illustrated—simple, practical, charming.

This valuable little book is uniform in size and style with Perfect Boyhood and Perfect Girlhood, and sells at same low price.

Postpaid, paper, 20c.; cloth, 40c.

HEREDITY EXPLAINED. Every child has an incontrovertible right to be well-born. No one has a moral right to foredoom his unborn child to a life of undevelopment on the earth plane, before it sees the light of day.

Price, postpaid, fine cloth, only 75c.; bound in paper, postpaid, 30c.

The Practical Lumberman

Third Edition. Copyright 1915.

A book dealing with the merits and uses of Douglas Fir (Oregon Pine), California Redwood and leading commercial woods of the Pacific Coast.

Size 4 x 6, well bound with silk cloth, stiff case; contains 256 pages of direct interest to Lumbermen, Loggers, Tallymen, Inspectors, Shipowners, Supercargo's, Stevedores or any one engaged in or contemplating entering the Domestic or Foreign Export Cargo Trade.

The opening of the Panama Canal means the expansion of the market for Douglas Fir and California Redwood, and to those desirous of obtaining reliable data on Pacific Coast Lumber, "The Practical Lumberman" can be depended upon in all respects.

FIGURING

This book is not a calculator, but explains in detail the shortest methods of figuring all kinds of squared and tapering lumber, logs, octagon spars, metrical orders, specifications, weights, water and lumber carrying capacity of all classes of vessels.

CONTENTS

An idea of the contents may be gathered from a few of the subjects treated, such as Scaling of Logs, Log Rules, Spaulding Log Scale, Kiln Drying Lumber, Silos and Silage, Wood Block Pavements. Pointers for charterers of vessels, ship's officers, supercargo's and stevedores on the correct way to load steamers with lumber. The water ballast situation and other important information known to but few experts is thoroughly explained.

Poultry Guide Post

132 pp., bound artistically in dark red burlap. Retail price $1.00 postpaid. Contains over 125 attractive original drawings by the clever artist, Henry Crossman Grover.

Mr. Philip R. Park, known all over the country to thousands of poultrymen, has written "Poultry Guide Post" to explain his successful methods. In this Mr. Park shows how poultry may be profitably raised in the city backyard, on the farm, or on the exclusive poultry plant. A veritable "guide post" of successful poultry keeping, a book of charming interest, delightful reading and a recreation as well as a handbook on poultry.

Margaret Mahaney Talks About Turkeys

132 pp. 12 full-page ills. Retail price, $1.00 postpaid.

Miss Mahaney has worked wonders in raising turkeys at her home in Concord, Mass. She has accomplished what Experiment Stations said to be impossible with turkeys in New England and other harsh climates. She tells all about it in her interesting book. Others are doing just as wonderful work by following her teachings.

SOCIAL ECONOMY By Cornele B. Adams

Paper. 124 pages, 5¼ x 7½. Price, 35c. Postpaid.

The first book to lay the foundation for a "Political Economy of Socialism." While but a very condensed synopsis, it is concise, and covers the subject very completely.

What an eminent Socialist thought of it:

". . . a very clear and logical exposition of production under Socialism. It clears up several problems that had bothered me for years. Especially on the one point of a wage scale according to production of the individual. . . . He has made this very clear. . . . It is a very valuable contribution to our economic works."—J. A. Weyland.

What a capitalist reviewer thinks of it:

"A rather more sound treatment of the economics of Socialism than is found in the usual book of this sort."—Edwin L. Shuman, in The Chicago Record-Herald.

American Secondary School Fraternities

(The first descriptive analysis of the high school fraternity ever offered.)

By J. WARD BROWN

Dissatisfaction with the so called high school fraternity is a characteristic thought of modern times. This cloth bound book is a trenchantly argued investigation of the virtues of fraternities written by a fraternity man.

The broad sweep of the articles contributed by representative fraternity men throughout the Nation traces the rise of the school fraternity from the year 1859.

Endorsed by its readers in 31 States and containing the name and history of all bona fide fraternities and sororities, this book will appeal to everyone seeking light on the subject.

CLASS ROOM LOGIC By George Hastings McNair

This book, containing 500 pages is of superior worth for the following reasons:

1. The language is simple, clear and to the point.
2. Definitions, rules and major facts are printed in italics.
3. The presentation is accurate and interesting and the text is easily read.
4. Each topic is presented with a view to securing rational thinking.
5. Ample opportunity is given for original thought.
6. The knotty logical difficulties common to the average student are made clear by illustrations taken in the main from class-room experience.
7. The text is distinctively educational and carries logical doctrine into every day life.
8. The summaries, questions and exercises closing each chapter are especially conducive to rapid and effective review.

Immortality of the Soul

By MICHAEL T. SHEIL, Lawyer of Tipton, Ind.

This new publication applies the fundamentals of science, philosophy and revelations in a series of logical deductions leading to a rational basis for the belief in everlasting life.

There is a blending of the good, the true and the beautiful as the argument proceeds, which fills the reader with joyful emotions in his progressive stages to the goal of certainty in unending life.

Among the many favorable comments as to the merits of the book is the following: "His reasoning is fine and his conclusions are arrived at in a way that brings conviction to the mind."

The Analysis of Beauty

By WILLIAM HOGARTH

A REPRINT, including the plates formerly in portfolio, arranged in convenient form. Few books of this character, first issued 150 years ago, contain enough of interest and instruction for the modern reader and art student to warrant a reprint. Hogarth's rare book is an exception. It is still an authority frequently referred to and quoted by teachers and writers on art, and is the basis of many systems of instruction. This reprint has been highly commended for its convenient form and general make up.

GOULDTOWN

A Remarkable Settlement of Ancient Date

Studies of some sturdy examples of the simple life, together with sketches of early colonial history of southern New Jersey.

The narrative of this unique colony of colored people—mulattoes; 200 years old; the oldest of its kind in the United States—is interestingly told with early genealogical records of the stock families of Southern New Jersey, and historical sketches of Fenwick's colony. The book occupies a place of its own among books published by colored Americans, and has been highly commended in all parts of the country.

By Wm. Steward, A.M., and Rev. Theophilus G. Steward, D.D., Chaplain U. S. Army, retired. Cloth, 237 pages, 5¾x9, 35 illustrations, deckle-edged paper, gilt top and gilt plate on side and back, untrimmed front. Price, net, $2.50. Order from any book dealer.

My Land, My Country, My Home

By A. ALBRIGHT

A Novel of intense interest, portraying that one thing in life that is without equal—a mother's love. The women will appreciate it; the men can learn something of great value; even the children will find that which teaches greater respect for motherhood. And to anyone not caring for any of these things, they will find a good, clean story, full of action.

A FIELD-GLASS VIEW OF BOOKKEEPING

By M. MITCHELL WILSON.

Carefully rendered in print by the Hollenbeck Press, Indianapolis, 20 pages, size 3½ x 6 inches, art paper cover, and sold at 38 cents per copy by book shops and mail distributors.

This brief work contains the essentials for successfully recording and showing the net results of any business or series of operations, from the smallest to the largest.

With its clear and simple comments on method and exposition of principles, it is as a key to the study of the bulkier text-books, however, that its positive practical value will be realized to the fullest extent.

"If you ever attacked the subject of book-keeping and met with a check, get 'A Field-Glass View' and assume a strategic position."—Auditor.

THE AMERICAN ACADEMY OF POLITICAL AND SOCIAL SCIENCE

Origin and Purpose.—The Academy was organized December 14, 1889, to provide a national forum for the discussion of political and social questions. The Academy does not take sides upon controverted questions, but seeks to secure and present reliable information to assist the public in forming an intelligent and accurate opinion.

Publications.—The Academy publishes annually six volumes dealing with the most prominent current social and political problems. Each volume contains from twenty to thirty papers upon the same general subject. The larger number of the papers published are solicited by the Academy; they are serious discussions, not doctrinaire expressions of opinion. The Academy publications give the most comprehensive account anywhere obtainable of the political and social questions that have been before the American people during the past twenty-five years.

Meetings.—The Academy holds five scientific sessions each year during the winter months, and it also has an annual meeting in the Spring, extending over two full days and including five or six sessions. The papers of permanent value presented at the meetings are included in the Academy publications.

Membership.—Membership in the Academy may be secured by applying to the Secretary, Logan Hall, University of Pennsylvania, Philadelphia. The membership fee is $5.00; life membership fee, $100. Members receive all the regular publications of the Academy, are invited to attend and take part in the scientific meetings, and have the privilege of applying to the Publication Board for information upon current political and social questions.

THE ANNALS OF THE AMERICAN ACADEMY OF POLITICAL AND SOCIAL SCIENCE

A bi-monthly periodical, sent free to members of the Academy. Each number contains about 250 pages, devoted to Leading Articles and Book Reviews. Six numbers yearly. NOTICE TO PURCHASERS

Orders. Each order should be clearly written and signed by the purchaser. It should give the post office, county, and State, and also indicate whether the goods are to be sent by mail, express, or freight; and, where the name of the railroad or express station differs from that of the post office, it should be stated.

Exact Titles. All orders should give the exact titles of the books as printed in our price lists; otherwise, we cannot be held responsible for errors in shipping. In ordering by telegraph, purchasers may use the code words given in this Price List.

Order Early. Orders are usually filled on the day on which they are received, but just before the opening of schools this is not always possible. To insure prompt delivery due allowance should be made for unavoidable detentions and orders should be sent early.

Special. We supply only our own publications. Where any of our printed books are not readily obtainable through the trade, they will be sent by us postpaid on receipt of the list prices. Postage on blank books, drawing books, blanks, and tablets will be at purchaser's expense. Books sent as ordered are not returnable. Orders for first introduction must give the names of the books to be displaced as well as those to be introduced. Keys and Translations will be supplied to teachers only.

Remittances. Each order should be accompanied by a remittance, unless the purchaser has an open account. Remittances by draft are preferred, but post office money orders or express money orders may be used, if more convenient. Purchasers who wish to open an account should apply for terms and give references showing financial ability, promptness, and general responsibility.

Mail, Parcel Post, and Express. Packages of printed books under 8 oz. may be sent at the rate of 1c. for 2 oz. Packages between 8 oz. and 50 lbs. may be sent by Parcel Post in accordance with the new zone rates, ascertainable at any post office. Packages of any weight may be sent by express. In the absence of specific instructions, we will send packages by the cheapest transportation.

Webster's School Dictionaries

New Books from Cover to Cover

Based on the New International Dictionary
thus conforming to the best present usage

Three volumes alike in general plan, character, and typography, but varying in size, scope, fullness of treatment, and price. Each has been made as complete as the limitations permit. A comparison with other dictionaries of similar grades will show the superior merits and greater usefulness of these WEBSTER SCHOOL DICTIONARIES.

Webster's Secondary-School Dictionary

70,000 words and phrases. 1,000 illustrations. 864 pages, 6¼ x 8⅝ inches. Plain, $1.50. Indexed, $1.80.

Presents the largest number of words and phrases ever included in a school dictionary. The wide scope of its vocabulary, the clearness of its etymologies, the simplicity and accuracy of its definitions, the nicety of its synonyms, the authority of its spelling and pronunciation, and the helpfulness of its supplemental tables, have given this volume a great vogue not merely in secondary schools but in grammar schools and colleges as well.

Webster's Elementary-School Dictionary

45,000 words and phrases. 900 illustrations. 720 pages, 5⅜ x 7¾ inches. 90 cents.

Carefully planned to meet the needs of all the elementary grades and other schools in which etymologies are not taught. It contains all words found in the school texts generally used, and includes the technical expressions of ordinary business and words used in elementary sciences. Special attention is devoted to making a word's meaning clear to immature minds, especially by the use of illustrative sentences or phrases and by discriminating synonymies. Inflected forms are given when irregular.

Webster's Shorter School Dictionary

35,000 words and phrases. Fully illustrated. 544 pages, 5⅛ x 7 inches. 60 cents.

In spite of its small size, this book presents a very large fund of useful information concerning not only common words but technical and scientific terminology and up-to-date words needed by elementary pupils. It is unique among smaller dictionaries in making clear grammatical difficulties.

Athletes of the Bible. Cloth .....*.40

An unusual series of studies of biblical characters in which the physical qualifications of the great leaders are made to emphasize the spiritual foundation of their lives, with the purpose of leading boys and young men to see that real religion is essential to efficiency and satisfaction. The impression is increased by frequent illustrations from the modern athletic world.

BROWN, JOHN, JR., M.D.

Outdoor Athletic Test for Boys. Paper .....*.20

An effort to meet the demand for a standard grading and athletic test in rural schools that will create enthusiasm for physical development of the right sort.

BROWN, JOHN RICHARD.

Jesus the Joyous Comrade. Boards, *.40

Christ is here presented as the strong leader of strong men; as one who enjoys doing hard things because he sees victory at the end. A character-building book on the order of the widely useful "Second Mile" by Harry Emerson Fosdick.

BURR, H. M.

Around the Fire. Stories of Beginnings. Library Buckram .....*.75

Hero tales—splendid stories for camps and the home circle, especially appropriate for the librarian's "story hour."

BUTTERFIELD, KENYON L.

Call of the Country Parish. .10; per dozen ..... .80

A clear, forceful statement of the present crisis in our rural religious and social life, and a strong appeal for the leadership of the best qualified men as none too efficient for the difficult task of making life in rural communities happy and effective.

CHELEY, F. H.

Told by the Camp Fire. (Boy Life Series.) Cloth .....*.75

Tales of camp life in the Rocky Mountains, full of exciting adventure of a novel sort, and with a refreshing sparkle of humor. Manly qualities are appreciated in a way that is fascinating and helpful to boys. A fine book for the home, boys' clubs and at camp.

CHELEY-BAKER.

Camp and Outing Activities. Buckram *$1.50

Any leader who has had a camp go "flat" will appreciate the value of this wealth of social, athletic and religious activities for boys in camp. From this series of games, stunts, songs, plays, nature study, Bible study, etc., the busy leader will have no difficulty in arranging a program for either indoors or in the open, for all kinds of weather. The material has been thoroughly tested in the most successful camps in the country. Over sixty diagrams and pictures make everything easily understood.

CHESLEY, A. M.

Social Activities for Men and Boys. Cloth *$1.00

A digest of material furnished by men who have done successfully the things they describe. Social events, games, entertainments, etc., all described as a means of attracting and holding men and boys so that they may be led into the fullest and happiest kind of life of body, mind and spirit.

CHESLEY, A. M. and B. H.

Mission Study for Older Boys. Pamphlet .....*.20

For the guidance of leaders conducting mission study classes for older boys, using Eddy's "New Era in Asia."

CLARK, HENRY W.

Philosophy of Christian Experience. Cloth *$1.25

Dr. Clarke's primary purpose is not apologetic but explanatory. He aims to promote a clearer comprehension of the content of certain fundamental religious ideas, believing that with a better understanding of these ideas comes a firmer conviction of their reasonableness and the vital conception of religious life as the final and completing chapter of the universal process.

CLARKE, GEORGE.

True Manhood. (M. & R. Series.) Cloth .....*.50

For the "un-get-at-able" man. A tactful yet uncompromising means of approach to the man who is a "good fellow"—but who leaves God out. The chapters deal with sin, steps back to God, a great purpose, etc.

COCKS, O. G.

Engagement and Marriage. (Sex Education Series.) Boards, *.25; pamphlet edition, *$7.50 per hundred, carriage collect.

The practical consideration of marriage as definitely related to social and economic conditions, and therefore requiring certain personal and general knowledge which most young men do not possess. A simple, straightforward discussion of all that marriage involves.

Social Evil and Methods of Treatment. (Sex Education Series.) Boards, *.25; pamphlet edition, *$7.50 per hundred, carriage collect.

Designed for use as a basis and outline for discussion in groups of laymen, such as men's clubs in churches.

COFFIN, HENRY SLOANE.

Christian and the Church. .10; per dozen .....*.80

An earnest appeal to the individual to fulfill his spiritual indebtedness. A summons to Christian endeavor that the church may include the widest possible differences within a unity of spirit that shall make it function harmoniously and unitedly for its one divine purpose.

COOK, J. W.

(c) †Introduction to Bible Study. Cloth, .25; paper ......15

Designed for the average Bible class student.

CORSAN, G. H.

At Home in the Water. Swimming, Diving, Water Sports, Life Saving. Revised and enlarged. Cloth *$1.00

DOGGETT-BURR-BALL-COOPER.

(d) †Life Problems. Paper .....*.25

This series of twenty-four lessons deals with matters closely related to the life of young men, such as social relationships, temptations, livelihood.

McBurney, Robert R. *$1.00

One of the great men in Association history was Robert McBurney, "the leading general secretary of the Young Men's Christian Association." His influence was felt in the work far beyond American boundaries. A life story well worth reading.

DRUMMOND, HENRY.

Ideal Life. (M. & R. Series.) Cloth, *.50; postpaid ..... .60

At the time of the first publication of Ideal Life, Dr. W. Robertson Nicoll in the British Weekly said: "This newly published volume of addresses by Professor Drummond will, we do not hesitate to say, commend itself to many readers, more than any of his other works. There burns throughout them a powerful flame that can illuminate or melt, and we cannot believe that any one can study them carefully and rise from the perusal the same as he was."

EARP, E. L.

Rural Church Movement. Cloth ....*.75

This book shows the need and call for spiritual leadership in rural America, giving the causes for rural church decline and the awakening interest in rural religious and social problems, including specific surveys and definite plans for bettering conditions. A selected bibliography is appended.

EDDY, G. SHERWOOD.

Temptation and How to Meet It. .10; per dozen $1.00

A powerful, sympathetic message to men who find it hard to live right—a message that reveals our spiritual resources in the fight, and the assurance of victory. In simple, manly fashion the author shows how to develop an evil-resisting character. The argument is peculiarly effective because of the quantity and character of the illustrative material.

EDWARDS, RICHARD HENRY.

Christianity and Amusements. Art leather .....*.50

"In this long-awaited first book of its kind primary emphasis is placed on a formative ideal, a constructive method and positive program. All dogmatism is thrown aside and an inductive method used throughout. No such systematic and adequate treatment of Christian principles in relation to amusements has been attempted hitherto."—Graham Taylor.

Popular Amusements. Cloth *$1.00

The peculiar value of this volume is attested by its publication in advance as a bulletin of the Extension Division of the University of Wisconsin. Under five classifications and by a unique method the author measures the extent and morals of commercial amusements, and gives practical suggestions, extensive bibliographies and a splendid list of questions for debaters.

ELLIOTT-CUTLER.

(c) †Student Standards of Action. Art leather .....*.50

A frank consideration of twelve outstanding student questions from the viewpoint of Jesus' standards of action. The book looks directly to the life and words of Jesus for a solution of the problems, carefully avoiding the proof-text method.

EXNER, M. J., M.D.

Physician's Answer. .15; per dozen, $1.50

An appeal for sexual continence that makes men think. Contains a statement that continence is essential to the highest physical, mental and moral efficiency, and a list of over three hundred prominent physicians who signed it. Highly endorsed by leading educators, and social and religious leaders. Every unmarried man should read this booklet.

Rational Sex Life for Men. Cloth ...*.50

A real dynamic in the fight against sex evils. It gives the true perspective to the whole problem by insisting that men should maintain high sex ideals, not merely because of danger to themselves, but as a solemn duty to womanhood, to posterity and to our whole social system. A book that inspires to purity.

FALCONER, R. A.

(e) †Truth of the Apostolic Gospel. Cloth, .75; paper ......50

The essence of the gospel is presented in thirty lessons. The book will aid those troubled with doubts to understand the convincing reasons for belief.

FISKE, G. W.

Boy Life and Self-Government. (Boy Life Series.) Cloth *$1.00

Professor Fiske's published studies and years of actual experience with boys are crystallized in this book. Some of the problems discussed are boy life in the light of the race life, the boy and his instincts, his struggles for character, the epochs of boyhood and youth, clubs for boys, by-laws of boy leadership, the boy's home and the boy's religion.

Challenge of the Country. Cloth ....*.75

"A vital, comprehensive and adequate book. It keeps close to the concrete, is replete with facts, shows a big grasp of the subject, and is well built for textbook use."—Prof. E. A. Ross, University of Wisconsin.

FOSDICK, H. E.

(c) †Manhood of the Master. Art leather .....*.50

This little volume will lead to a better understanding and deeper appreciation of the Master's character as an individual. The significant events of His life are considered, but only as they illuminate His personality. Arranged for individual use and for Bible study groups.

(c) † Meaning of Prayer. Art leather .....*.50

This vitally helpful book throws much light on God's attitude toward us and our needs. In a vigorous, impressive way, with fine illustrative material, the author considers three phases of prayer: As communion with God; as petition for the things we need; and as the expression of dominant desire. The discussion of obstacles to effective prayer is also very enlightening.

Second Mile. Boards .....*.40

Whosoever shall compel thee to go a mile, go with him twain, said Christ, and our author deals with the glories of this second mile. It is a book for the person determined to win, a book of inspiration to accept the extra duties, beyond those on the program.

FOSTER, ALLYN K.

Cartoons in Character. Cloth .....*.50

Sharply drawn pen pictures of well-known human traits of character. The author does not mince words, and his descriptions of Willie Wilts, Kit Kalamity, Toby Tight and more than fifty others are very amusing, but they also incite the reader to take a personal inventory.

FOSTER, E. C.

After Decision—What? Pamphlet, .05; per dozen .....*.40

A word of fraternal greeting and wise counsel to the young man who has recently become Christ's follower, and who, on the threshold of his opportunities as a Christian, will find especial inspiration in this personal message and its suggestions for his guidance.

At the Forks of the Road. .05; per dozen ......40

A brief, pointed, friendly word to boys who have reached the place where, consciously or unconsciously, they will make a decision regarding the Christian life. The author shows the attitude which, in fairness, one must take in considering the question, and makes the acceptance of Christ normal and essential in a way that appeals to a boy's heart.

(c) Starting to Teach. Cloth .....*.40

A book for leaders of boys' Bible classes. Studies in first principles adapted for use in the early stages of teaching. The author is an authority on the conduct of boys' classes.

FOWLER, H. T.

(e) †Wisdom Literature of the Old Testament. Cloth, .60; paper ......40

This course of Old Testament studies is based upon Job, Proverbs and Ecclesiastes. It deals with the Hebrew attitude toward God in the light of their peculiar problems, and with the application of these teachings to our times.

GEIL, W. E.

Man of Galilee. Cloth, .50; paper ....25

A life of Christ in the very words of Scripture, modified by observations in the Holy Land.

GIBSON, H. W.

Bible Studies for Boys' Camps. .10; per dozen .....*.80

A supplement to Mr. Gibson's book on camping, planned "to help boys hear the 'sermons in stones' and become better acquainted with God the Creator and Jesus Christ the Saviour and Friend." Twelve lessons and a list of thirty-one suggestive Bible readings.

Camping for Boys. Canvas $1.00

A complete authoritative handbook telling how to select a site, build fires, cook, insure proper sanitation, care for the sick, give first aid to the injured, check up a list of necessary articles, play rainy-day games, etc. Mr. Gibson has written out of a twenty-year experience and some of the chapters have been revised by other experts. Each chapter has a choice bibliography. Illustrations. Bound in canvas and pocket size. Used and recommended by the Boy Scouts.

Services of Worship for Boys. Single copy, *.45, postpaid; *$35.00 per hundred, plus carriage.

Services of music, responses and prayers suited to boys. The author has used similar services in boys' meetings, camps and conferences with remarkable results in dispelling restlessness, and making the work of the speaker effective. The services cover a good number of subjects, and music is provided for all the hymns. There are special sections for out-of-doors and round the camp fire.

GIBSON, JOHN MONRO.

Devotional Use of the Scriptures. Cloth .....*.50

This is a personal book, full of helpful suggestions for the promotion of the devotional life.

GILBERT, PAUL.

Conductor Jim. Cloth .....*.50

The story of Jim Burwick, told in his own words—the account of a wrecked life restored through the grace of God. Though the narrative is rich in laughter and tears, the meaning of it all, the power of God unto salvation, is never lost sight of. An inspiration for men who fear they are "down and out." Pictures of Burwick and his friends.

GOODMAN, F. S.

(c) Another Story by Dr. Luke. Arranged for correspondence study. Lesson sets complete .....*.15

Fifteen short readings to acquaint the student with the story of the founding of the Christian church as recorded in "the Acts of the Apostles."

(c) Christian Testimony. (Studies in Acts.) Paper ..... .15

The witness to Christ, as borne by the disciples in the early church, is the central fact of these elementary inductive studies.

Effective Bible Study. Cloth .....*.25

A consideration of the seven principal agencies for religious training, and a description of tried and effective methods of stimulating intelligent, interested and habitual Bible study by men and boys. Organization, teacher qualifications and teacher training are briefly but clearly discussed. Contains an extensive and carefully selected bibliography.

(c) Enlisted Man and His Bible. Paper .....*.15

The peculiar needs of men in the army and navy have been kept in mind in preparing this course.

(c) Life and Letters of Paul. Cloth, .40; paper ......25

Thirty studies in the life of Paul arranged chronologically, divided into four sections. May be used as two short courses or one long one. Provision is made for a limited study of the Pauline epistles. Daily readings related to the lessons are added. A chronology of Paul's life and a classification of his epistles are given.

(c) Main Lines in the Bible. Railroad and city editions, each ..... .25

Short and simple, yet comprehensive and practical studies for busy people in topics such as, the Bible, God, Christ, the Holy Spirit, forgiveness, prayer, service. Fourteen lessons and a bibliography.

(d) Prayer, Principles and Examples. Cloth, .25; paper ..... .15

(c) Progressive Bible Studies. Cloth, .25; paper ..... .15

Nine introductory lessons on the Bible and its use, nine on fundamental truths as a preparation for service, and seven personal work studies based on Christ's life, with studies of practical personal problems.

GOODMAN-KNEBEL.

(c) Story of Jesus by John. Correspondence Bible Study. Twenty-two lessons with a copy of John's Gospel, .20. Additional copies of John, .03 each.

Especially adapted to men who cannot meet regularly in classes. Each lesson occupies a separate leaflet with space after each question for a written answer.

HALL, C. C., Editor.

Bible Truth in Hymns. Paper .....*.35

The purpose is to illustrate by means of Christian hymns Christian belief and experience.

HALL, WINFIELD S., M.D.

Developing Into Manhood. (Sex Education Series.) Boards, *.25; pamphlet edition, *$7.50 per hundred, carriage collect.

This book is designed to answer intelligently and authoritatively the questions which occur to every boy during the period of adolescence. Teachers will find it especially helpful in outlining a more extended and detailed course in eugenics.

From Youth Into Manhood. (Boy Life Series.) Cloth .....*.50

Teachers, parents, friends and every adolescent boy need a copy of this book. Here are given facts a boy should know about his body and the interpretation of them. Simple rules are added that will enable a boy to care for himself during the critical periods. The sections on diet, exercise, etc., are of incalculable value. Commended by experts.

Life's Beginnings. (Sex Education Series.) Boards, *.25; pamphlet edition, *$7.50 per hundred, carriage collect.

Brief but clear explanations that will enable boys from ten to fourteen years to strive intelligently for the wholesome manhood which is their rightful heritage.

HARLOW, S. R.

Life of H. Roswell Bates. Cloth...*$1.00

The author of this short "Life" knew Roswell Bates from his early years, and presents a satisfying picture of the man as he really was; at work and play; laboring, spending himself for others, giving of his best to "Spring Street," on the lower west side of New York, and going to his rest long before he reached his prime, yet with a great life-work well and nobly done.

HARRIS, FREDERICK M.

Campaign of Friendship. Teacher's edition, *.15. Student's section, .10; per dozen ......80

This course comprises a series of ten lessons, grouping together passages bearing on some of the important ideas growing out of Jesus' direct appeal for followers. The teacher's edition contains helpful suggestions to leaders on each week's topic.

HICKS, H. W.

Rose, Memorial of Horace William. Cloth .....*.65

A rarely successful student worker. Rose was bright, cheerful, and intense. The story of his brief but promising life is well told here.

HINCKLEY, G. W.

Roughing It with Boys. (Boy Life Series.) Cloth .....*.75

Brimful of human interest, these episodes savor delightfully of real camp life where fun-loving nature finds wholesome outlet in purposeful energy and through the significance of commonplace incidents the words "comrade" and "leader" take on new meaning.

Story of Dan McDonald. Cloth, .25. Paper, .05; per dozen ......40

A bright, stimulating story of a real boy, a strong and manly fellow who strove for the highest things.

HOBART, ALVAH S.

Religion for Men. (M. & R. Series.) Cloth .....*.50

"Not only does the author seek to make religion real to the hearts and lives of men, but he presents the subject in such a clear, concise and broadminded manner that it becomes attractive to them."—The Christian Work and Evangelist.

HODGE, G. B.

Association Educational Work. (For Men and Boys.) Cloth, *$1.00; paper, *.75

Object, place, features, organization and conduct of supplementary education under auspices of the Young Men's Christian Association.

A working manual on the principles, methods and means of meeting the vocational, cultural and civic needs of men and boys. Among other topics it treats of class work in over 100 subjects; 80 or more varieties of clubs; a wide range of subjects and details for lectures and practical talks; libraries and reading-room facilities; advertising; fees; courses of study; equipment; finance and reports. Sections on day work, apprentice schools, teachers, extension work, thrift, supervision, etc. No Association committeeman or paid officer in any capacity can afford to be without this volume.

HOGG, A. G.

(d) †Christ's Message of the Kingdom. Cloth .....*.80

A little book which penetrates to vital truth and in a most illuminating way interprets the great New Testament conceptions, harmonizing them with the intellectual presuppositions of our own time.

As an incentive to Christian faith and Christian thought it is deserving of close attention.

HOLDEN, J. STUART.

Gospel of the Second Chance. (M. & R. Series.) Cloth, *.50; postpaid .... .60

A message to those who, despite honest intent of heart, have somehow failed of the grace of God. It is the author's purpose to emphasize the renewal of opportunity which God offers as the expression of His great mercy—the confidence of a great love. This second chance is our divine assurance that the past need not be unconquerably despotic—that, except for what we have learned in the darkness of bitterness and failure, we really belong to the future, and that at every point of the most conflicting experiences of life the certainty of God's love will be always our great inspiration.

HORNE, C. SILVESTER.

Livingstone, David. (M. & R. Series.) Cloth, *.50; postpaid ..... .60

An impressive and altogether satisfying double picture of the sturdy, purposeful, self-forgetting character of the great missionary and explorer, and the conditions faced and overcome in his struggle to open up the dark continent. Brief with the brevity that means wise selection of material, intensity of narration and vivid description.

Life That Is Easy. (M. & R. Series.) Cloth .....*.50

A vivid picture of human nature at its best. The word "easy" is not used as the lazy man uses it. The author presents Christianity as the only method of getting the highest result with no waste of effort or time. It is the easiest way to do hard things.

Relationships of Life. (M. & R. Series.) Cloth .....*.50

This book deals with applications of the principles laid down in the "Life That is Easy." The Christian World says: "Mr. Horne is a close observer of men and manners and his words ring true to life; his counsel is practical and sensible and his appeals to idealism inspiring." Both books are highly commended as gifts for young men.

HORNE, H. H.

Leadership of Bible Study Groups. Cloth .....*.50

"This volume is a real contribution to Bible study, not only in colleges, but wherever scholarly work is aimed at."—William D. Murray, Plainfield, N. J.

HORTON, R. F., and Others.

Youth and Life. (M. & R. Series.) Cloth .....*.50

Twenty-seven chapters by a score of distinguished authors. The topics cover a pretty complete view of character development. One quotation will serve to give the keynote; "Manliness is a matter of culture rather than fate."

HOWARD, P. E.

Trumbull, Life of Henry Clay. (M. & R. Series.) Cloth, *.50; postpaid .... .60

Dr. Trumbull's life was an inspiration, and this discriminating and intensely interesting biography of the author of "Individual Work for Individuals" should stir the reader to greater activity.

JACKSON, MELVIN.

(a) †Travels of Paul. Teacher's edition, cloth, *.40; paper, *.25. Student's lesson leaves, with maps for tracing journeys, per set, .10; per dozen .....80

The heroic qualities of the life of Paul are especially emphasized in twenty-five lessons. The loose leaves are available for advance distribution. Three outline maps for tracing Paul's journeys are given.

JALLADE, L. E.

Association Building. Plans for supervision and circulation. Illustrated. Paper .....*.25

The average Association secretary would be surprised if he knew how much he is losing in results because of the unscientific handling of the membership in the building, and in money through unwise supervision that is wasteful of the time of employees. This little booklet contains the latest and most expert conclusions on these subjects.

JEFFERSON, CHARLES EDWARD.

Essentials. (Fundamentals.) Boards, *.35

A strong and clear aid to one's faith in the Scriptures after all the criticism and discussion.

Next Step. In book form, .35. Condensed for use as a tract, .05; per dozen ......40

A timely gift for new converts; specially useful in following up the results of evangelistic campaigns.

JENKS, JEREMIAH W.

Life Questions of School Boys. (Boy Life Series.) Cloth, .40; paper ......25

This book deals in a most skillful and helpful way with the ideals, conduct and "point of contact" of school boys. Arranged for use as a study course. Supplement gives bibliography and Bible references for more exhaustive study.

Personal Problems of Boys Who Work. (Boy Life Series.) Cloth, .40; paper ......25

This volume appears in response to many requests for a series of lessons similar to "Life Questions of School Boys," but particularly adapted to wage-earners. Selected material from the previous volume has been appropriately adapted and supplies a basis of proven value.

(d) †Social Teachings of Jesus. Cloth, .75; paper ......50

A twelve weeks' course treating of the social aspect of Jesus' teachings. Modern life problems are considered in the light of these teachings.

JOHNSTON, HOWARD AGNEW.

Famine and the Bread. Cloth *$1.00

"A volume of experiences, anecdotes and observation which show the need of Asiatic men, women and children for the bread of heaven and the hunger with which some are receiving it. These stories are exceptionally readable and the book is attractively illustrated."—Missionary Review of the World.

(d) †God's Methods for Training Workers. Cloth, .75; paper ......50

Adapted to young people's societies and other class work.

(d) †Studies for Personal Workers. Cloth, .50; special abridged edition, paper ......25

Conservation of Life in the Rural Districts. Boards .....*.25

A brilliant interpretation of man's relation to the country environment by the chairman of Canada's Royal Commission on Industrial Training and Technical Education.

ROBINSON, C. C.

Christian Teaching on Social and Economic Questions. (Boy Life Series.) Cloth, .50; daily readings, .10, per dozen ......80

This is a course of twenty studies prepared to meet the imperative need that the moral and ethical questions involved in earning and spending, in individual striving for success and in cooperative activity, should be clearly pointed out to the older boys and young men struggling to find their place in the whirlpool of modern business and industry.

Wage Earning Boy. Boards .....*.25

Dealing with the status and imperative needs and the adaptation of Association machinery and spirit to meet these needs: organization and leadership and giving suggested program of activities with suitable bibliography.

ROBINSON, G. L.

Abiding Value of the Old Testament. Boards .....*.35

The best possible introduction to Old Testament Bible study. Clear statement of the reasons for retaining the Old Testament both as a necessary interpreter of the New and because of its intrinsic value.

(d) †Book of Isaiah. Cloth, .75; paper ......50

The author is recognized as one of the most discerning and effective interpreters of Israel's commoner prophet. Fifteen studies.

(c) †Leaders of Israel. Cloth, .75; paper ......50

A strong course of studies in the Old Testament. The character of Israel's leading men and the history of that people from Abraham to Christ are portrayed. There are twenty-five lessons, with many maps and charts of peculiar interest and value.

SALLMON, W. H.

(d) Life of Paul. Cloth, .40; paper 25

The character of Paul, in his varied experiences as student, hero, author, prisoner, etc., is dealt with in twenty-four lessons. An outline of Galatians and a chronology of Paul's life are included in the book.

(d) Miracles of Jesus. Cloth, .30; paper ..... .20

Twenty topical studies based on Matthew but with references to the other gospels. Attempt is made in the study to find the motive and lesson of each miracle.

(d) Parables of Jesus. Cloth, .25; paper ..... .15

Fifteen studies based on Matthew. The parables are viewed with reference both to Christ's divine character and teachings and their practical application.

(d) Studies in the Life of Jesus. Cloth, .40; paper ..... .25

The twenty-five lessons are historical, but emphasize the character of Christ as a living reality. The discourses in John's Gospel and the miracles and parables are omitted, the latter subjects forming separate courses. Bibliography, maps and suggestions to leaders are included.

SAYFORD, S. M.

Personal Work. Cloth ..... .75

SEE, E. F.

(d) Teaching of Bible Classes. Revised and enlarged by WILLIAM D. MURRAY. Cloth .....*.75

This book is meant for the Bible teacher who is intent on training himself to make the most of his privilege, but has not time to take an extensive course. In simple language, made interesting by illustrative material, it gives the main principles and practical methods of teaching as they apply to instruction in the Bible. Each lesson is followed by quotations carefully selected from the best books on the subject. The teacher's qualification, his preparation, relation to the student, mistakes, art of questioning and illustrating, attention, memory, feelings, habits, are among the subjects treated.

SHARMAN, H. B.

(d) †Studies in the Life of Christ. Used in connection with a Harmony. Sold in sets. Cloth, *$1.25; paper, *.75. Studies, cloth, .75; Harmony, cloth, *$1.00. Paper books not sold separately. (No discount on sets.)

This course has thirty studies of a historical and devotional character, and is based upon the Harmony of the Gospels by Stevens and Burton. The studies are chronological and there is opportunity for comparing the accounts found in the four gospels.

SMITH, FRED B.

Man's Religion. Cloth .....*.75

A book of exceptional qualities, giving the impressions of a quarter of a century in the service of the Young Men's Christian Association. "Fred B. Smith was the dynamic leader of the Men and Religion Movement. Little book though it is, it is withal a great book for the modern man—a book to nerve the man who has religion and put a mighty challenge before the man who has not religion."—The Continent.

Men Wanted. Cloth ..... .75

The author, who is well known as "The greatest living Evangelist to Men," and who has for years refused urgent calls from publishers and the public for a book, has at last yielded and written a message in his own vigorous style. After a trip through the cheap lodging houses of the Bowery, Mr. Smith came to this conclusion, "There are too many men in the world." Later he decided that there are not enough of the right kind. His book shows how to get out of the "Too Many" class into the "Not Enough" class. Although much of his work has been getting men started right, he is just as deeply interested in what happens beyond the turning point, as he proves in the chapter, "The Dynamic of Life's Best." It is preeminently a men's book.

SMITH, GEORGE ADAM.

Drummond, Life of Henry. Cloth, *$1.00 (This contains the same matter as the original edition sold at $3.00.)

"What makes his biography admirable is his fairness in dealing with Drummond's intellectual product and his loving appreciation of the man. We lay down the book with the feeling that nothing that Drummond wrote is so morally inspiring as his character, and especially the simplicity with which he met more than once the temptations of a great and sudden fame."—The Nation.

SMITH, H. L.

(b) Christian Race. (Boy Life Series.) Teacher's edition, cloth, .75; student's pad ......20

A unique course of twenty-four lessons on the Life of Christ, supplemented by twenty-four biographical sketches of men who have "won out," and an equal number of studies of the elements of character that make up the "Christian athlete." The student's pad is incomplete without the larger book, which should be in the hands of the teacher.

SMYTH, J. PATERSON.

Bible in the Making. Cloth .....*.75

There has been long wanting such a book as this, constructive, not destructive; frank and fearless, scholarly and reverent. The story is told in simple, fascinating style that will help anyone puzzled about higher criticism to moor himself more firmly than ever on the impregnable rock of the Scriptures.

SPEER, ROBERT E.

Christian's Habits. Boards .....*.50

How to Deal with Temptation. Boards, *.25. Paper, .10; per dozen, *.80

Temptation may be a source of either strength or weakness. This stimulating little book helps one to make his temptations a source of strength.

Marks of a Man. (M. & R. Series.) Cloth, *.50; postpaid ..... .60

"Deals with Truth, Purity, Service, Freedom, and Progress. No one is doing more than Mr. Speer to mold the young men of today into noble patterns. This volume is in his best vein."—Interior.

Principles of Jesus. (M. & R. Series.) Cloth, *.50; postpaid ..... .60

Mr. Speer prefers to treat of the practical questions of today rather than of those raised in the sphere of speculative thought. It is this practical Christo-centricism that is destined to carry the Gospel into the heart of the modern social world, as well as into the individual life.

Things That Make a Man. .05; per dozen .....*.40

SPURGEON, C. H.

Treasury of David. Containing an original exposition of the Book of Psalms; a collection of illustrative extracts from the whole range of literature; a series of homiletical hints upon almost every verse; and list of writers upon each Psalm. Of these volumes, 164,000 have been sold. New edition from an entirely new set of plates, large clear type, complete in six volumes *$8.00

"The comments and expositions abound in rich, racy, and suggestive remarks, and they have a strong flavour of the homiletic and practical exposition with which Mr. Spurgeon is accustomed to accompany his public reading of Holy Scripture. There is an intensity of belief, a fulness of assent to the great points of Calvinistic orthodoxy which our author would not be true to himself if he attempted to conceal. The brief introductions are very well done, and the abundant apparatus criticus, the list of hundreds of writers on the Psalms, whose meditations have been laid under contribution to enrich the work, render this commentary one of the most voluminous in existence. At all events, the volume will be an encyclopædia of reference."—British Quarterly Review.

SWEET, LOUIS MATTHEWS.

Study of the English Bible. Cloth, *$1.00

Constructive suggestions for acquiring biblical knowledge by studying the Bible itself, rather than books about the Bible. The author goes below all artificial and merely formal processes to a vital way of dealing with word, topic or book. The appendix gives outline studies and much other valuable matter. A book that gives a new vision of the pleasure and profit of Bible study.

THOMAS, W. H. GRIFFITH.

Methods of Bible Study. (M. & R. Series.) Cloth .....*.50

A very direct treatment of the Bible itself as distinct from the mass of discussion about the Bible. It deals with the actual contents of the various groups of books, thus forming an introduction to the Bible as a whole that will make clearer a study of its parts.

TOWNS, CHARLES B.

Injury of Tobacco. $1.50 per hundred, $12.00 per thousand.

An impartial presentation of the harmful and far-reaching effects of the use of tobacco.

TRANSEAU, E. F., and C. F. STODDARD.

Some Modern Facts About Alcoholic Drinks. $1.50 per hundred; $12.00 per thousand.

Practical consideration of alcoholism from a personal, business and social standpoint.

TRAWICK, A. M.

City Church and Its Social Mission. Cloth .....*.60

Well-directed suggestions tending to awaken in the city church a larger conscience and more effective recognition of the extent of its opportunity in the leadership of Social Service.

More importance is attached to the discovery of real conditions than to a review of general principles, the author urging that each church should make a special study of its own equipment in relation to the environment for which it is individually responsible.

TRUMBULL, C. G.

(a) †Men Who Dared. Teacher's edition, cloth, *.40; paper, *.25. Student's edition, *.10. A set of sixteen half-tone pictures to illustrate the lessons, .10 per set. Student's edition and pictures each, per dozen ......80

Eighteen lessons in Old Testament character study. Teachers will find this an excellent elementary course.

(c) Taking Men Alive. Cloth, .60; paper ......40

"Individual Work for Individuals," by Dr. H. C. Trumbull, is a narrative of striking experiences. "Taking Men Alive," by his son, discloses the principles underlying such work. For the individual student or the group. Unconventional, wholesome, and greatly needed.

WARNER, LUCIEN CALVIN.

Personal Memoirs of Lucien Calvin Warner. Cloth *$1.00

Dr. Warner has for many years stood for the highest type of consecrated layman. His reminiscences are full of human interest, tracing the course of a long and useful life through many and varied experiences. Dr. Warner served for a long period as Chairman of the International Committee of the Young Men's Christian Association, and his references to the beginnings and development of the movement will be of special interest to all Christian workers.

WEATHERFORD, W. D.

†Introducing Men to Christ. Cloth, *.50

This volume attempts to make clear to men the steps which one takes in entering the Christian life, the results in one's life of becoming a Christian, the fundamental message of Christianity as compared with other religions, and the foundation stones upon which the Christian faith rests. Two chapters study how this message of the Christian life may be passed on to one's friends. Ten studies in the fundamental question of Christian life.

Negro Life in the South. Cloth .....*.50

A well-arranged collection of concrete facts, by an open-minded Southerner who knows the Negro and who knows also what the Negro's white friends need to understand in order to help him. "A distinct addition to the swiftly gathering forces now crystallizing the sentiment of the South into an organized demand for the industrial education of the Negro."—Southern Workman.

Present Forces in Negro Progress. Cloth .....*.50

A fair-minded statement of conditions as they are. Intended to meet the supreme need of the hour for facts rather than theories. Supplemented by an excellent bibliography and index.

WEAVER, E. W.

WILLIAMS, J. E. H.

Williams, Life of Sir George. (M. & R. Series.) Cloth, *.50; postpaid ..... .60

No Association secretary or member can afford to overlook such a book as this life of the founder of the Young Men's Christian Association. There is inspiration, argument and method in this story, which answers the old question, Can a successful modern business man be a Christian? He could. He was. Specially helpful as a guide in doing personal work.

WILLMAN, L. K.

(c) †Men of the Old Testament. Cloth, .75; paper ......50

Eighteen studies adapted for students in preparatory and high schools and other Bible classes. The lessons furnish an excellent introduction to, and historical outline of, the Old Testament by a study of some of its most prominent men.

An impetus to renewed endeavor will be found in the skillful and suggestive treatment of such pertinent topics as, "Need of a Study of the Field," "What Makes a Leader," "Religious Education in Country Life," "Opportunities of the Country Pastor to Direct Social Enterprise," "Home Made Leaders," etc.

Country Church and Rural Welfare. Cloth *$1.00

The wide range of problems confronting the rural church and the variety of subjects involved in the whole question of community betterment have suggested the idea of offering to the public, in permanent form, these papers from experts whose knowledge and experience along agricultural, educational and pastoral lines will be invaluable to the man actively engaged in this work, while to the general reader they will be an unexpected revelation of a movement that has outgrown local boundaries and become a distinctive feature of our country's wonderful progress.

Field and Work of the Y. M. C. A. Boards .....*.40

A brief but comprehensive handbook describing Association beginnings, the general scope of activities and the magnitude and variety of the work now being done for men and boys.

God Incarnate. Boards .....*.25

Address on the Deity of Jesus in which the author as a seeker after truth weighs carefully all arguments and meets all issues with fearlessness and the open mind of a scholar.

Graded Gymnasium Exercises. Prepared by a Committee under the direction of the Physical Directors' Society of the Y. M. C. A. and adopted by the Society, June, 1911. Cards, per box *$1.50

There are 84 exercises for elementary work, 74 for intermediate work and 40 for advanced work, printed on substantial cards, suitable for tacking up in gymnasium, and contained in a neat box.

Gymnastic Nomenclature. Fourth edition. Revised. Illustrated. Cloth, *$1.00

Officially adopted by Physical Directors' Society of the Y. M. C. A.

Immigrant and the Community. Paper .....*.50

A comprehensive and well-ordered series of papers containing facts and conclusions by writers who know what they are talking about. For example, W. Jett Lauck of the United States Immigration Commission shows in detail exactly how to study immigrant communities. Dr. Howard B. Grose indicates inoffensive methods of helping foreigners to a better religious experience.

Juvenile Delinquent. .....*.50

Each paper is by a man picked from the crowd because of special fitness to treat that particular subject. Chapters on Big Brothers' Movement, Juvenile Courts, Protective League, etc.

Men and Religion. Cloth .....*.50

The manual of the Forward Movement in behalf of the religious life of the men and boys of North America. Fifteen chapters by leaders—Hubert Carleton, Fayette Thompson, John R. Mott, Marion Lawrance, H. B. F. Macfarland and others. Subjects: The Brotherhoods, the Sunday School, The Boy, The Local Church, The Average Man, Prayer, The Bible, Social and Evangelistic Emphasis.

Physical Education. Cloth *$1.00

This handbook makes available the valuable principles underlying Association work in physical training. Both in breadth of viewpoint and variety of application this treatment of the subject will be found unusually stimulating and suggestive. To those desiring larger returns in increased efficiency, it will prove an indispensable aid.

Publicity Message. (M. & R. Movement.) Cloth *$1.00

The relation of the press to religious work from a nation-wide standpoint. The common opportunity and the common obligation of the church and the press and suggested means of adjustment which will further cooperation of these two great factors in the promotion of Christianity.

(See Messages of the Men and Religion Movement, page 16.)

Quartettes and Choruses. (For Men's Voices.) Single copies, *.40; postpaid, .45; *$4.50 per dozen, carriage collect.

A collection of old songs that are not worn out and new ones that will live to be old. A book in which the untrained crowd can always find something easy to begin with, but none the less of musical excellence. Here are plenty of pieces, also, that may be used by the more advanced singers, for concert numbers and for public services of every kind. Part of the selections are sacred, but favorite melodies are added for social occasions.

Railroad Association Work. History, Principles and Methods. Prepared by the Railroad Department, International Committee of Young Men's Christian Associations. (1915 edition.) Cloth *$1.00

A brief history of Association development, furnishing an introduction to and a statement of the specialized character of the Railroad Department.

Religious Work for Boys. ..... .25

A symposium of articles upon this important subject. They have been issued in this form because of their special value.

Rural Church and Community Betterment. Cloth *$1.00

A discussion, by leaders in the church, county work and in education, of the various ways of bringing the best influences to bear on rural communities. President Butterfield of Massachusetts Agricultural College, Professor Fiske of Oberlin, Dr. Warren H. Wilson of the Presbyterian Board and others deal with cooperation between Church and Association; Bible Study for Farmers; Country Church Administration; Community Building, etc.

Rural Church Message. (M. & R. Movement.) Cloth *$1.00

A rediscovery of the rural church as a big man's job; its regenerating influence as a social center, focusing commercial interests; and a frankly critical survey of the resources of the church in relation to the demand of the age for a new perspective affecting the whole rural problem.

(See Messages of the Men and Religion Movement, page 16.)

Salaried Positions for Men in Social Work. Paper .....*.15

Showing the need for able leaders in social service, and the opportunity such service offers for a real profession at a living salary.

Social Needs and the Colleges. .15; per dozen $1.50

The conclusions and practical recommendations of a conference of leaders in Christian social work, met for the purpose of getting an unhurried vision of conditions and their causes, and of considering the need of developing social study and social action among college students in order that they may find their God-given life expression in helping to establish the Christian ideal in the world.

Social Service Message. (M. & R. Movement.) Cloth *$1.00

The practical interpretation of individual and cooperative effort for civic and community betterment and the church's need of vital contact with every part of the community in its effort to bring about a new social order which shall make no distinctions in its universal application of Christian brotherhood.

(See Messages of the Men and Religion Movement, page 16.)

Topics and Outlines for Shop Meetings. Paper .....*.25

Published in response to a demand for suggestive shop talk material. The topics have been thoroughly tested in one of the best shop meeting programs in the country, and they offer many suggestions to the leaders of this aggressive form of Christian work. There is also a helpful discussion of the best methods of advertising such meetings.

Unifying Rural Community Interests. Cloth *$1.00

Theorizing will not make country life what it should be. The value of this volume is that in its pages experienced men who have faced the actual difficulties tell just why cooperation of rural interests is needed, and give practical plans for a unity of effort that shall overcome the obstacles now retarding rural community progress.

Use of the Bible Among School Boys. Cloth .....*.60

The report of a unique Conference of Schoolmasters, presenting methods of leading school boys to a deeper interest in and a more intelligent study of the Scriptures.

This library of books, rich in practical suggestions to earnest Christians, was issued at the request of the leaders of the Men and Religion Forward Movement. A questionnaire was sent to religious leaders throughout the country asking them to name books that would be helpful along the lines of boys' work, Bible study, evangelism, social service and missions. This set of books embodies the joint opinion of these men.

These books should be on the table of every pastor, teacher or other Christian worker in city or country. Each book was chosen because it contained a part of the message and method of the movement.

Price in original bindings, $10.50.

MASTERPIECES FROM SWEDISH LITERATURE

in English form. Vol. I. Selections of poetry and prose from standard Swedish authors. Cloth ..... .75

Vol. II. Cloth ..... .75

In the original Swedish, these selections are what they are here claimed to be—masterpieces. In fact, any one familiar with the Swedish tongue will place them on par with the best literary production in any of the languages of the world. A translation will never do full justice to the original, and especially is this the case if it be a translation of poetry. Only a very small part of the contents of these two volumes consists of prose, and those critically inclined will therefore find a correspondingly larger field in which to display their cleverness and acumen. Still we believe that where criticism is tempered by moderation and discrimination, the honest judgment will be that the translators have acquitted themselves quite creditably. These two volumes do not by far include all the masterpieces of Swedish literature, and we hope to see other volumes appear in the future to complete the series.

MODIN, REV. BERNHARD,

pastor Swedish Ev. Lutheran Church, Vasa, Minn.

What is Man? Cloth 2.00

"Anthropological and psychological works and text books may be had in any book store, but generally these books are so philosophical and written in such an academical and theoretical language that a practical person does not feel particularly interested in them. Most of the scientific works on this subject have, besides, little or no consideration for divine revelation, and therefore end in unproved speculations and hypothesis which satisfy neither author nor reader. The author of this book avoids these ways. He uses a popular language."..... "Its greatest value, however, consists in this that the Bible is allowed to throw its light upon that darkness which the investigator in this field encounters, a merit that no human conclusion, how deep they may be, ever can substitute."

The Old Cabin and The Red Shoes. Translated by E. H. Illustrated Boards ..... .25

To be a story-teller is something more than an art, it requires genius, or an inborn intellectual power. But in order to tell stories for children—stories not aiming merely at amusing, but at training the child's mind and heart — to tell such stories a person needs something more besides genius, he needs a simple, artless and guileless spirit. This faculty is a rare gift, but Topelius possessed it in an eminent degree, and we are glad to have his stories translated into English and thus made acessible to a larger circle of readers than they could count upon in their original tongue. Only a person who possesses the qualification of a good story-teller will make a good translator of such stories, and Dr. Foss has proved himself qualified for this work.

Each volume is complete in itself, but an opportunity to complete the whole series is here offered, and those who appreciate this kind of literature, should not fail to avail themselves of the opportunity.

VICKNER, EDW. J., M. A., PH. D.

A Brief Swedish Grammar. Cloth, net 1.00

Omitting technical details, the merits of Prof. Vickner's new English textbook of the Swedish language may be briefly stated as follows:

A clear and concise presentation of the facts, rules and idioms of the language.

A system of lessons furnishing working material to the student from the start, and dealing with the parts of speech in the order best suited to this purpose.

Exercises plentiful and less rudimentary than in most beginners' books, connected discourse being given preference to detached sentences.

Vocabularies of every day speech volumnious and detailed, with colloquial and idiomatic phrases added.

Lends itself to the conversational method of instruction.

Facilitates acquisition of common phrases and idioms rather than a stock of mere words.

Extra space accorded the treatment of parts of speech offering more than ordinary difficulties, such as the prepositions; while, on the other hand, pronunciation and accent are briefly treated, in view of the fact that the phonetics of the language had best be taught orally, and can be mastered only by constant practice with a teacher.

THE PSYCHOLOGY OF THE KAISER $ .60 net

By MORTON PRINCE. Illustrated.

This book is a study of those traits of the Kaiser which are manifested by what amounts to an obsession — his violent hatred of Democracy, his Divine Right Delusion, his supreme sentiment of self-regard, his extraordinary arrogance and vanity and his desire to conquer the world. It also deals with the demands of the German Democracy in its long struggle to substitute a rule of the people for the autocratic House of Hohenzollern. This psychological study of the man most prominent in the eye of the world at the present time, by the most eminent psychologist living, is certain to appeal to an unusually wide audience.

LITTLE FOLKS PLAYS OF AMERICAN HEROES

By MARY HAZELTON WADE, Author of "The Little Cousin Books."

Children are natural actors. In their hours of play they impersonate the characters of the people around them. Christenings and weddings, funerals and festivals are enacted as vividly as the scanty knowledge of the young minds makes possible. Every act of every little mother toward her doll is a reality for the time being. Because of this faculty for imitation, plays are the best possible means by which young minds can absorb into their natures the qualities which have made other people great.

This series has been written with this purpose in view. In simple form, and presenting the heroes in successive periods of development, it enables the child to read and act out their lives at one and the same time, entering into the great men's thoughts and feelings as they conquer every obstacle and become at last "great."

The lives of the heroes as given in this series are intended to supplement the play and furnish the facts needed to make a complete picture in the child's mind of what great men have done.

This series will be of especial value in the classroom, where it may be used as a reading, at the same time giving opportunity for the children's dramatic instinct to be exercised naturally.

Poet Lore

TITLE REGISTERED AS A TRADE MARK

A Magazine of Letters — Established 1889

published bi-monthly — $1.00 a Copy, $5.00 a Year

POET LORE is the oldest and largest review in the English language devoted to poetry and drama. In its pages appear the best work of the world's greatest writers, and for twenty-five years it has been an active pioneer in promoting an interest in international letters. Mæterlinck, Hauptmann, Sudermann, Schnitzler, D'Annunzio, Gorki, Andreyev, Björnson and Synge are among those POET LORE has introduced to the American public.

A LONG FOREIGN PLAY is given in each issue — French, German, Norwegian, Italian, Spanish, Icelandic, Russian, Irish, Bohemian, Dutch, Danish, Japanese and Hindu — are all drawn upon for these plays. In every case the translation is true to the original and unabridged.

A ONE-ACT AMERICAN PLAY also appears in each issue. Among these are the best of the plays given at the Toy Theater in Boston.

POETRY is given special attention; more notable, original and translated verse appearing in POET LORE than in any other American periodical.

ESSAYS appear in each number, a wealth of critical articles on many literatures.

It is a most excellent indication of the genuine love of high literature that the editors have been able to bring together so many distinct contributions of a suggestive and critical character. There is a freshness about the work which is inspiriting, and the study is of that which is worth while, not the tiresome praise of the second rate.— Atlantic Monthly.

A periodical that stands steadfastly for good literature, and for the value of poetry in all walks of life.— The Dial.

THE JOURNAL OF ABNORMAL PSYCHOLOGY

THE JOURNAL OF ABNORMAL PSYCHOLOGY stands as the representative of the scientific study of the abnormal phases of mind. It publishes the researches and practical conclusions of the most eminent representatives in this branch of study. To those who desire more than a vague general and more or less unreliable account of the present position and attainments of abnormal or medical psychology THE JOURNAL OF ABNORMAL PSYCHOLOGY is the only source available. As official organ of the American Psychopathological Association and the British Psycho-Medical Society its standing and authority is assured.

Edited by Morton Prince.

Published bi-monthly. 75 cents a copy. $4.00 a year.

School Bulletin Publications

I BY SUBJECTS

II AUTHOR AND SUBJECT IN ONE ALPHABET

NOTE.—The figure at the left gives the page of the catalogue in the Trade List of 1908, where the book will be found most fully described. Binding is indicated as follows: M. morocco, ½ M half morocco, B boards, C cloth, ½ l half leather, M manilla, P paper. Size as follows: 8:416 indicates 8*vo*, pp. 416; 12:393 indicates 12*mo*, pp 393; 16:380 indicates 16*mo*, pp. 389. Books preceded by a dagger (†) have been selected by the Education Department for the New York Teachers' Library. Books preceded by (T) have been specified for instruction in New York training classes.

Books starred may be had also in paper binding, at half the cloth price. Unless expressly ordered to be sent in this binding, such volumes are always sent in cloth. Books marked net are sent by mail only with additional charge of one-tenth for postage.

It is no longer practicable to send out complete catalogues of The School Bulletin Publications, as they have become too large. Instead we now publish partial catalogues on special subjects, or for special schools, which so far as issued are as follows. Any sent free on request.

Books on Education and Teaching

Besides his own publications Mr. Bardeen has for forty years dealt extensively in books on education and teaching, and has now in stock the largest collection on sale of such books and pamphlets, particularly sets of Educational Journals, Official Reports of all Countries, and of States and Cities, etc.

He has just purchased the entire library of the late William H. Payne, president of the Ypsilanti state normal school and of the Peabody college for teachers. This is probably the largest individual collection existing, and is especially rich in French pedagogy, as Dr. Payne was the translator and American editor of the works of Gilbert Compayré. It is to be noted that Dr. Payne was greatly interested in book-binding, and a large proportion of these books are finely bound in half leather. Catalogues will be ready Sept. 1.

—THE SCHOOL BULLETIN PUBLICATIONS—

The School Bulletin

And New York State Educational Journal

Established 1874. 24 pages, 9x14. $1.00 a year

The School Bulletin is one of the three oldest educational journals in America, and the only one of them that has been under the same ownership and management from the beginning. It was the only American school journal which received the gold medal at the Paris Exposition of 1889; it received the highest award offered at the Chicago Exposition of 1893, the diploma pronouncing it "of the greatest interest and historical value to educators of all grades"; and it received two gold medals at the Paris Exposition of 1900. Its editor had charge of the department of Educational Publications at the World's Fair Congress of 1893, and prepared the article on Educational Journalism printed in the 50th anniversary volume of the National Educational association for 1906.

In the feature of educational news it has never had a rival. Its chronicles of what has happened in New York schools since its establishment are unmatched in educational literature, and it has taken note of whatever has happened in other states that involved general principles. It is abundantly illustrated, especially in portraits, of which more than 300 have appeared in a single volume.

It also publishes the most important circulars and decisions of the Education Department, and records of the meetings held and circulars issued by the District Superintendents; in short it is indispensable to the New York teacher who would be well-informed.

Dr. Sherman Williams, Chief of School Libraries, wrote us May 25, 1913: "I have read the School Bulletin from the first number, I think. I read no other periodical with so much satisfaction. Your reports of educational meetings are not equalled by any other writer. Your general surveys of the educational field are very remarkable. Your knowledge of human nature is unusual. Your wealth of information is marvellous. All these qualities enable you to make the School Bulletin the remarkable paper that it is."

Peerless Maps

"Geography is one of the five elementary studies of prime importance that occupy the attention of the child at school."

"The study of man, his history, nationality, civilization, occupation, etc., is in fact the study of real geography."

This series has been made with these principles in mind, and has, we believe, achieved a new era in map making. These maps show not only outlines, contours, relative positions, comparative areas, etc., but combine with these ordinary features historical foundations, commercial connections, physical conditions, and many more points which serve to emphasize and make possible the study of man. The series comprises:

United States	North America
South America	Europe
Asia	Africa
World Mercator's projection

Each printed on one sheet. Uniform in size, 42x59 inches.

Plain mounted, Style I, each.....$4 00
On spring roller, with enamel cover, Style II, each..... 5 50
On spring roller, in steel case, Style III, each..... 6 00

These maps have been approved by the Education Department of New York for the schools of the state, and the amounts paid for them will be duplicated by the state at these prices. This is the highest compliment that can be paid, for the inspection and comparison were thorough, and the decision based on the principle that New York schools are entitled to the best maps published. They are especially adapted to the present tendency in geography to emphasize the commercial side, and are made especially to conform with the Elementary Syllabus of the state of New York.

They may be had either lettered, with the names of places printed, or unlettered, without the names of places printed, usually called outline maps; unless otherwise specified the lettered maps are sent.

The coloring will be found distinct but restful to the eye, in strong contrast with the big blotches of bright red, green, and yellow commonly used.
